

National Technical
Honor Society

August 24, 2026

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to verify that Richard Dissell was inducted into the National Technical Honor Society at ITT Technical Institute - Strongsville, Strongsville OH during the 2009 school year.

Founded in 1984, NTHS is a non-profit organization that serves as the honor society for Career & Technical Education (CTE). NTHS not only recognizes excellence in CTE but believes strongly in advocating for and empowering its members to pursue the skills they need to build their careers and the global workforce. This is accomplished through career development, leadership development, service, and recognition opportunities at the chapter level.

As a member of the National Technical Honor Society, Richard Dissell has demonstrated excellence in their chosen Career & Technical Education field and met both the national and local chapter requirements to be inducted.

Sincerely,

National Technical Honor Society
